

GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP HIS PLAN

Maryland Congressman Thinks It Will Be Solution of Express Business

COMMERCE BODY AT WORK

Hears Some Radical Remedial Recommendation at Opening of Investigation

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Congressmen and remedial recommendations ranging from initial radical proposals presented to the interstate commerce commission today at the opening of a series of hearings to be held throughout the country in investigation of the express business.

The magnitude of this business was brought out by Attorney Frank Lyon, counsel for the commission, who said he combined express companies operate more than 270,000 miles of railway and do business through 31,325 stations. He placed the cost of operating his express plants at $27,000,000, the operating cost at $10,000,000, for a fraction over 48 per cent on plant valuation.

Congressman David J. Davis, of Cumberland, Md., one of the first witnesses, declared that government ownership would ultimately prove to be the only logical solution of the express business. He had abandoned the idea, he said, that a parcels post would give the required relief.

"Express rates are prohibitively high," he continued, "being 10 times the freight rate, $2.50 per ton for express to $1.50 for freight."

Comparison of Rates.

Three-cent schedule imposed a cost of 4 and 6 cents a ton. At 5 cents the cost would be $180 a ton, or five times the express charge, or 11 times by European parcels post. Above three pounds the express companies now give much lower rates than provided by the parcels post, and below three pounds they give rates as good.

Contending that there should be a more natural ratio between freight and express charges, Mr. Davis declared there was margin of profit made by the companies, he thought, on which the interstate commerce commission may operate to give relief to business interests without jeopardizing the investments of the express companies.

To remedy prevailing conditions, representative Lewis suggested "fast service" as now provided by the railroads. But the main need is an articulation of the country and suburban joints with the railways, which may be accomplished by rural delivery agency. Express railways contracts should be secured by the postal department to obtain low rail rates.

"Several shippers who were witnesses today emphasized their objections to regulations under which express companies accept freights, especially against the clause of 'owner's risk' and 'value asked and not given.'"

William B. Jones, a commission merchant of Baltimore, said the Adams express company had a monopoly in that city, and that the Adams express carriers were so poor that commission men had to haul their own goods to protect themselves from loss.

PRESIDENT MAY TAKE UP RUSSIAN TREATY MATTER

Well Defined Report He Will Have Something to Say on Negotiations in Message

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—There was a well defined report today that President Taft in his message to congress might have something to say on the negotiations between the United States and Russia, looking to a revision of the treaty of 1825, principally to remove the present restrictions upon the rights of travel and abode of American Jews in Russia.

The rumor was coincident with the beginning of the official talks of George Baklanoff, the new Russian ambassador. Mr. Baklanoff had a long talk with Secretary Knox and soon will present his credentials to the president.

President Taft has already received many insistent suggestions that the treaty with Russia be abrogated. On the other hand some of the president's advisers. It is said, have counseled against such drastic action. They take the ground that to cut off all treaty relations in Russia would leave the situation in worse shape than at present and that in the alteration of the treaty the United States has every thing to lose in the way of tariff concessions, and other considerations while Russia would lose practically nothing.

EMPLOYMENT AGENCY SHIPS MEN WHERE NOT NEEDED

Sixty Laborers, Sent to Benson, Ariz., From Denver, in Ugly Mood. Residents Fear Trouble

BIRMINGHAM, Ariz., Nov. 22.—According to reports from Benson, Ariz., tonight, trouble is being caused by a number of laborers shipped to that place by an employment agency under promise of work. When the men arrived they found there was no work.

Twenty-three men arrived last night and swelled the number of all to 60. They are in an ugly mood.

The contractors of the El Paso and Southern Railway Extension disclaim responsibility for the acts of the Denver employment agency and declare they are not in need of laborers. The men now here say they paid a Denver employment agency $12 each for a job in the camp near Benson.

SEVERAL HURT AT A FIRE

Cincinnati, O., Building Destroyed. With Loss of $150,000—Two Children Run Down Will Die

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 22.—Two children were fatally injured and a number of men were seriously hurt when fire tonight destroyed the plant of the J. H. Smith and Co. lock company early this evening. The loss will be in the neighborhood of $150,000, fully covered by insurance.

Two hundred employees were in the building when the fire started and the flames filled the exits in such a short time that nearly all the employees escaped from the building through other channels.

The two children, Thomas Schell, aged 12, and his brother Walter, aged 8, were playing in the basement when the fire started. They were badly injured and are now in the hospital.

The fire started in the basement of the building and spread rapidly to the upper floors. The fire department arrived within five minutes and fought the fire for several hours before it was under control.

STATE BAR ASSN. FILES AN ATTACK ON APPEALS COURT

DENVER, Nov. 22.—Attorneys representing the State Bar Association today filed in the state supreme court a brief attacking the constitutionality of the act passed by the last legislature providing for the creation of a state court of appeals, and the statute by which the act of 1910 is amended to provide for the creation of a state court of appeals.

The brief, presented in support of the final application for a writ of habeas corpus, was filed in the state supreme court today. The brief was filed in the state supreme court today.

ARE ALLEGED TO BE IN REVOLUTIONARY PLOT

Ex-Minister of Interior of Mexico Will Be Arrested, Say Officials

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 22.—The Mexican government today announced that it had received information that a revolutionary plot was being organized in Mexico. The plot was alleged to be headed by the ex-minister of interior of Mexico, who was said to be in contact with the leaders of the revolution.

The government officials said that they had received information that the ex-minister of interior was in contact with the leaders of the revolution, and that they were planning to overthrow the government.

Hold Up Troops, by Mistake.

At Tlaxcala, Mexico, yesterday afternoon a group of revolutionaries held up a train of troops. The troops were on their way to a military camp, and the revolutionaries were trying to prevent them from reaching the camp.

The revolutionaries were armed with rifles and other weapons, and they held the train of troops for several hours. The troops were eventually released, and the revolutionaries were taken into custody.

Rangers Ask Authority.

MINSTERS, Nov. 22.—Governor Colquhoun has asked President Taft to issue the state ranger authority to enforce the federal prohibition laws along the Rio Grande. It is alleged that this authority will aid the state in enforcing the federal prohibition laws.

Officers Seize Horses.

LAREDO, Tex., Nov. 22.—Officers returned to Laredo today with 50 horses they had seized at a ranch near Aguilera in this county on the charge that they were held there for use by persons preparing to engage in a revolt in Mexico.

Troops Into Arizona.

EL PASO, Ariz., Nov. 22.—What is believed to be the extension to Arizona of the patrol of the Mexican border already in effect in Texas, was foreboded today by the ordering of the second squadron of the Sixth United States Cavalry, stationed at Fort Huachuca, to Warren, Ariz.

TARRING CASE INTO JURY'S HANDS TODAY

Judge Points Out That Defendants Might Be Guilty of Aiding and Abetting

LINCOLN, CENTRE, Kan., Nov. 22.—With but two more closing arguments to be delivered, it looks tonight as if the "tarring" case will be in the jury's hands by tomorrow noon.

Eye Witness Tells Of Patterson's End

JENNER, Nov. 22.—The only known eye witness to the shooting of Charles A. Patterson, for whose murder his wife, Gertrude Gibson Patterson, is now on trial before Judge George Walton in the district court, was placed on the stand today. He is A. B. Shugart, a carpenter, whose home is near the spot where Patterson was killed.

Orders Payment of Debts.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Determined to avoid giving any pretext for foreign intervention for financial reasons, the Chinese government has ordered all receipts from maritime customs, including the 1901 "boxer" indemnities, to be deposited with the foreign banks to the credit of China's foreign debts.

City Council Adopts Budget Unanimously

The mayor's budget for 1912, presented to the city commissioners last Monday at an adjourned meeting, was adopted yesterday without change. Commissioner Himebaugh voiced an objection to the mayor's plan whereby the department of public safety will pay the water department rental aggregating $400 annually for the lead in the budget is necessary because of the heavy demands on the water department for sinking fund and interest. It is also expected that by making this charge Colorado Springs will be able to collect about $1,000 annually from Colorado City for hydrant rents.

Change in Attitude.

Cross-examination seemingly disclosed the point that the sympathies of the witness were decidedly with the prosecution, there being a marked change in his attitude when Attorney Hilton took him in hand.

Manchu General Stops Butchery.

Tsao, who is the chief of President Yuan's forces, has not yet given up hope of winning over the Manchurian general. The latter has at least stopped killing those who have put off their queues and has issued a decree assuring the Chinese and others within the city that they are safe. He also has guaranteed protection to the Red Cross.

GOVERNMENT OWNERSHIP HIS PLAN

Maryland Congressman Thinks It Will Be Solution of Express Business

COMMERCE BODY AT WORK

Hears Some Radical Remedial Recommendation at Opening of Investigation

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Criticism and remedial recommendations ranging from mild to radical were presented to the interstate commerce commission today at the opening of a series of hearings to be held throughout the country in investigation of the express business.

The magnitude of this business was brought out by Attorney Frank Lyon, counsel for the commission, who said the combined express companies operate more than 270,000 miles of railway and do business through 31,325 stations. He placed the cost of operating the express plants at $27,000,000, the operating net income at $10,000,000, or a fraction over 35 per cent on plant valuation.

Congressman David J. Lewis of Cumberland, Md., one of the first witnesses declared that government ownership would ultimately prove to be the only logical solution of the express business. He had abandoned the idea, he said, that a parcels post would give the required relief.

"Express rates are prohibitively high," he continued, "being 16 times the freight rate, $3.25 per ton for express to $1.90 for freight."

Comparison of Rates.

"Parcels post schemes impose a cost of 8 and 9 cents a pound. At 5 cents the cost would be $100 a ton, or five times the express charge, or 11 times the freight rate. Above three pounds the express companies now give much lower rates than proposed by the parcels post, and below three pounds they give rates as good."

Contending that there should be a more natural ratio between freight and express, Mr. Lewis declared there was margin of profit made by the companies, he thought, on which the interstate commerce commission might operate to give relief to business interests without jeopardizing the investments of the express companies.

To remedy prevailing conditions representative Lewis suggested fast service as now provided by the railroads. But the main need is an articulation of the country and suburban points with the railroads, which may be accomplished by rural delivery agency. Express railways contracts should be secured by the postal department to obtain low rail rates.

Several shippers who were witnesses today emphasized their objections to regulations under which express companies accept goods, especially against the clause of "owner's risk" and "value asked and not given."

William B. Jones, a commission merchant of Baltimore, said the Adams Express company had a monopoly by that city, and deliveries were so poor that commission men had to haul their own goods to protect themselves from loss.

W. Morgan Shuster, and his wife, Mr. Shuster is an American who is directing the finances of Persia. He has aroused the enmity of the Russian empire and the latter has demanded from the shah that this salaried American be expelled from Persia. Russia has politically declared war on Mr. Shuster and they have sent an armed expedition to occupy two Persian provinces. The ill feeling was brought about by Mr. Shuster relieving the Persian caissiers from guarding the shah's treasury and supplanting them with Persian gendarmes under an officer of his selection.

PRESIDENT MAY TAKE UP RUSSIAN TREATY MATTER

Well Defined Report He Will Have Something to Say on Negotiations in Message

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—There was a well-defined report today that President Taft in his message to congress might have something to say on the negotiations between the United States and Russia, looking to a revision of the treaty of 1832 principally to remove the present restrictions upon the rights of travel and domicile of American Jews in Russia.

The rumor was coincident with the beginning of the official call of George Bakmeteff, the new Russian ambassador. Mr. Bakmeteff had a long talk with Secretary Knox and soon will present his credentials to the president. President Taft has already received many insistent suggestions that the treaty with Russia be abrogated. On the other hand some of the president's advisers. It is said, have counseled against such drastic action. They take the ground that to cut off all treaty relations with Russia would leave the situation in worse shape than at present and that in the abrogation of the treaty the United States has everything to lose in the way of tariff concession and other considerations while Russia would lose practically nothing.

EMPLOYMENT AGENCY SHIPS MEN WHERE NOT NEEDED

Sixty Laborers Sent to Benson, Ariz., From Denver, in Unhappy Mood. Residents Fear Trouble

RISBEE, Ariz., Nov. 22.—According to reports from Benson, Ariz., tonight, trouble is feared from a number of laborers shipped to that point by Denver employment agencies under promise of work. When the men arrived they found there was no work.

Twenty-three men arrived last night and swelled the number of idle men to 60. They are in an ugly mood.

The contractors of the El Paso and Southwestern extension disclaim responsibility for the acts of the Denver employment agency and declare they are not in need of laborers. The men here say they paid a Denver employment agency $12 each for a job in the camp near Benson.

SEVERAL HURT AT A FIRE

Cincinnati, O., Building Destroyed With Loss of $150,000—Two Children Run Down Will Die

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 22.—Two children were fatally injured and a number of men were seriously hurt when fire totally destroyed the plant of the J. Baum & Co. lock company early this evening. The loss will be in the neighborhood of $150,000, fully covered by insurance.

Two hundred employees were in the building when the fire started and the flames filled the exits in such a short time that nearly all the employees escaped from the building through other channels.

The two children, Thomas Schell, aged 5, and his brother Walter, aged 3, were sitting on the sidewalk when a fire engine's buggy, driven by a Cincinnati fireman, crossed the street in front of the buggy and both were run over. They died.

STATE BAR ASSN. FILES AN ATTACK ON APPEALS COURT

DENVER, Nov. 22.—Attorneys representing the State Bar association today filed in the state supreme court a brief attacking the constitutionality of the act passed by the state legislature providing for the creation of a state court of appeals and the naming by the governor of five judges to comprise the new tribunal.

"The act is unconstitutional," says the brief, "because it purports to take from the supreme court a part of its final appellate jurisdiction vested in it by the constitution and to bestow it upon the court of appeals; this involves the proposition that all appellate jurisdiction may be taken from the supreme court with the sole exception of writs of error to the county courts. The act is unconstitutional because it purports to deprive the supreme court and litigants thereof of the use of the writ of error, contrary to the whole theory of the constitution and the common law principles and rules."

COMEZ, ZAPATA AND REYES JOIN

ARE ALLEGED TO BE IN REVOLUTIONARY PLOT

Ex Minister of Interior of Mexico Will Be Arrested, Say Officials

MEXICAL CITY, Nov. 22.—Luis Vasquez Gomez, former minister of interior, and Emilio Zapata have joined hands in an effort to overthrow the Mexican government, according to information received by the president today from the secret service agents of the government who are in San Antonio.

Zapata has been in open rebellion since the close of the revolution. Vasquez Gomez will be arrested in the course of government officials, who received word yesterday from their agents in the north.

In a statement of interior officials were outlined today of an arrangement at the Hacienda San Nicholas, Tlaxcala, in Mexico in which the rebels joined hands with federal troops for the regular troops, they stopped it. The federal troops poured a heavy volley from the windows into the Zapatas, who fled.

Unofficially the Planifloras-Reyes, Vasquez and Zapata, is not regarded as impracticable. Reyes is considered a military expert of high order; it is claimed that Vasquez Gomez has command of a number of disaffected Mexicans through affiliation with them, chief minister of the interior, and already Zapata has proved himself formidable, both during the Madero revolution and since.

Hold Up Troops by Mistake

At Tlaxcala, Mexico, yesterday the rebels and planned to rob a passenger train from Vera Cruz. Mistaking a special loaded with federal troops for the regular train, they stopped it. The federal troops poured a heavy volley from the windows into the Zapatas, who fled.

Unofficially the Planifloras-Reyes, Vasquez and Zapata, is not regarded as impracticable. Reyes is considered a military expert of high order; it is claimed that Vasquez Gomez has command of a number of disaffected Mexicans through affiliation with them, chief minister of the interior, and already Zapata has proved himself formidable, both during the Madero revolution and since.

Rangers Ask Authority

AUSTIN, Tex., Nov. 22.—Governor Tolpelt has asked President Taft to give the state rangers authority to enforce the federal immigration laws along the Rio Grande. It is urged that this authority will add the state in excluding Mexicans interested in revolutionary politics and in clearing the Texas side of the river of operators who may have already crossed the border. The president has referred the matter to the department of commerce and labor.

Officers Seize Horses

LAREDO, Tex., Nov. 22.—Officers returned to Laredo today with 50 horses they had seized at a ranch near Aguilar in this county on the charge that they were held there for use by persons preparing to engage in a revolt in Mexico.

From a train arriving here today it was learned that at Laredo, 70 miles south, an import Mexican caravan where 400 soldiers are stationed a train is held ready to transport troops to the border on short notice.

Troops Into Arizona

BISBEE, Ariz., Nov. 22.—What is believed to be the extension to Arizona of the battle of the Mexican border already in effect in Texas was forced today by the ordering of the second squadron of the Sixth United States cavalry, stationed at Fort Huachuca, to Warren, Ariz.

This squadron of cavalry will leave its post in the hills tomorrow and will arrive on Saturday at Warren where it will go into camp.

From the fact that arrangements are being made to keep the cavalry troops at Warren for some time it is believed the order came from Washington and not from the post commander.

FELLOW SERVANT LAW LEGAL

U. S. Circuit Court Holds It Constitutional Despite Efforts to Nullify Late Records

DENVER, Nov. 22.—The old fellow servant law of Colorado has been declared legal and operative by the United States circuit court of appeals in a decision rendered in St. Louis. The fact that the record of the state senate had been tampered with in an alleged effort to defeat the law did not affect the constitutionality of the law, the court held. The case was that of Andrew Duke, an employee against the Portland Mining company. Duke alleged to a suit brought in the United States district court in Denver, that he had been injured through the carelessness of a fellow employee and asked for damages.

The attorneys of the Portland Mining company took the ground that the law was unconstitutional because the record of the senate journal which contained the vote on the bill was missing. The decision of the court reads in part:

"Conclusion is reached from the oral testimony and investigation which the court has made that the fellow servant law was constitutionally passed and that an attempt was made to defeat its operation by a mutilation of the senate record."

The case is remanded to the district court at Denver for trial.

TARRING CASE INTO JURY'S HANDS TODAY

Judge Points Out That Defendants Might Be Guilty of Aiding and Abetting

LINCOLN CENTRE, Kan., Nov. 22.—With but two more closing arguments to be delivered, it looks tonight as if the "tar party" case will be in the jury's hands by tomorrow noon.

All the testimony was completed shortly after the afternoon session of court started. A recess of two hours was then taken while the judges prepared their instructions. Prosecutor McCanness completed his address before adjournment. At the night session J. J. McCurdy and N. L. Milliken spoke for the defense. This leaves Col. David Ritchie and A. N. Hawkes representing the defense and state, respectively, to speak tomorrow.

Attorneys for the defense regarded the judge's instructions as highly favorable to their clients. Prosecutor McCanness says he is satisfied with them, however. The instructions were that the defendants might be found guilty of aiding and abetting in the crime even if they were not present. If it could be proved, said the court, that the attack was a direct result of counsel or advice given by the defendants, then they should be found guilty. But the mere facts that the defendants had talked with the assailants of Miss Chamberlain regarding the contemplated attack was not in itself sufficient ground upon which to base a conviction. This, however, might be taken into consideration in making up the verdict, the court instructed. The fact that the men were seen walking toward the "tarring" might be considered.

EYE WITNESS TELLS OF PATTERSON'S END

Carpenter Describes How Wife Shot Husband, and Then Identifies Revolver

DENVER, Nov. 22.—The only known eye witness to the shooting of Charles A. Patterson, for whose murder his wife, Gertrude Gibson Patterson, is now on trial before Judge George Walton in the district court, was placed on the stand today. He is a carpenter, whose home is near the spot where Patterson was killed.

On the morning of September 25 last, he testified, he was stepping from a tool shed in the rear of his home when he heard two shots fired in rapid succession. Looking in the direction from which the sound came, he saw some 300 feet away, a man upon his hands and knees and a woman, revolver in hand, standing over him.

"I shouted to her to stop," said Shugart, "and immediately after I called to her she shot again. The man lurched forward on his face and stiffened out."

"Then," Shugart said, "I started on a run towards them. I had to go around my house and when I came in view, the woman was stooping over the prostrate man. As I approached she ran into the house in front of which the shooting had occurred."

"When I reached the man he was still gasping. I turned him over and asked who he was and what had happened, but he was beyond speech."

"When you turned the man over, did you find anything?" asked Special Prosecutor Horace G. Benson.

Identifies Revolver

"I found a revolver," Shugart replied, "and went on to say that he had placed the weapon in his pocket. Here I received with which Patterson was killed was handed to the witness and he identified it."

Shugart then went on to describe how he had entered the house to which the woman had fled. Her foot had been in a chair in the sitting room, apparently in a faint, but how, when he unbuttoned her jacket to search her for a weapon she opened her eyes and looked at him.

"I asked her who the man outside was," declared the witness, "and she answered 'he is my husband and he wronged me.'"

When he asked her who she was and where she lived, and sought other information, Shugart declared, she refused to talk.

Throughout Shugart's examination, Mrs. Patterson preserved the immobility that had characterized her during the trial so far. If she felt any emotion when she heard from the lips of another the story of how she had killed her husband, there was no visible sign.

Cross-examination by Attorney O. N. Hilton, for the defense, failed to shake Shugart's testimony on any important point. Some inconsistency was shown between his testimony at the coroner's inquest and the story he told today, and stress was laid on the difficulty of his seeing clearly at the distance at which he said he was.

Change in Attitude

Cross-examination seemingly disclosed the point that the sympathies of the witness were decidedly with the prosecution, there being a marked change in his attitude when Attorney Hilton took him in hand.

Previous to the examination of Shugart the state introduced witnesses to substantiate its claim that the killing of Patterson was premeditated.

George W. Strain, a young illustrator of Denver, told the jury of events at Mrs. Patterson's mansion on the Saturday night preceding the shooting.

WARN PEOPLE IN NANKING TO MOVE

Foreign Consuls Notified That Rebels Are Ready to Bombard City

GOVERNMENT PAYING DEBTS

Determined to Give no Financial Reasons For Foreign Intervention

SHANGHAI, Nov. 22.—(4 p. m.)—Wu Ting-fang, director of foreign affairs, has notified the consuls that the bombardment of Nanking will begin shortly. He warns them to withdraw their respective countrymen from that district.

NANKING, Nov. 22.—(6 a. m.)—The revolutionary forces are making preparations for the bombardment of Nanking. These will be completed with the arrival of 10 warships on the way to this place and an attack will be made on the city simultaneously by land and sea.

A small body of General Chang's imperial scouts last night tore up a section of the railway four miles to the south of Nanking. Prior to this the railway had been considered neutral territory.

Within the city walls 11,000 men hold a strongly fortified position. They are said to be well supplied with arms and ammunition, but they are poorly provisioned.

The former Chinese minister to Japan, Tsao, who is a warm personal friend of Chang's, has been endeavoring to induce him to surrender, but Chang is obstinate.

Manchu General Stops Butchery.

Tsao, who is the guest of President Bowen of Nanking university has not yet given up hope of winning over the Manchu general. The latter has at least stopped killing those who have cut off their queues and has issued a decree assuring the Chinese and others within the city that they are safe. He also has guaranteed protection to the Red Cross.

CITY COUNCIL ADOPTS BUDGET UNANIMOUSLY

The mayor's budget for 1912, presented to the city commissioners last Monday at an adjourned session, was adopted yesterday without change. Commissioner Himebaugh voiced an objection to the mayor's plan whereby the department of public safety will pay the water department rental for hydrants. Mayor Avery said this new feature in the budget is necessary because of the heavy demands on the water department for sinking fund and interest. It is also expected that by making this charge Colorado Springs will be able to collect about $1,000 annually from Colorado City for the hydrant rents.

City Attorney McKesson told the council that as the water department is an entity, it is possible for it to charge all of the city departments for the amount of water they used. Commissioner Himebaugh was alone in his protest, and after a brief discussion, the budget, as published in Tuesday's Gazette, was adopted by the council unanimously.

A request for an appropriation from the union depot commission brought out the opinion of the city attorney that the council could make no change in the document, other than to reduce appropriations. The city attorney's ruling makes it impossible to transfer money from the contingent fund to an appropriation for the commission. The commissioners said, however, that they will look after any incidental expenses incurred by the depot commission.

Steel Investigators Invite Rockefeller and Almoner to Reply

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22. John D. Rockefeller and his almoner, the Rev. P. D. Gates of Montclair, N. J., will be invited by the house committee investigating the United States Steel corporation to reply to testimony given yesterday and today by Alfred and Leonidas Merritt of Duluth, Minn., charging that Rockefeller, through Gates as his agent, took from them in 1893, $10,000,000 in Messabe iron mine and Duluth, Mesabe and Northern railroad securities to satisfy a call loan of $420,000.

These securities were afterward sold to the United States Steel corporation and they today are a part of that corporation's vast holdings. After Leonidas Merritt had testified today that he had gone to New York with $10,000,000 in securities, had met there Rockefeller and two months later had nothing except a "chance to walk from New York to Duluth on the tin" the steel committee had an executive session. Previously Chairman Stanley had announced that Mr. Rockefeller would be subpoenaed. The committee decided, however, merely to ask Mr. Rockefeller and Mr. Gates if they wished to appear and to give them an opportunity to be heard.

When Leonidas Merritt had completed his testimony in which he dramatically described how Mr. Rockefeller had first captured him with his proposal to form a consolidation of interests in the Lake Superior region, had loaned him money and later had foreclosed on him, leaving him and his brother without any equity in property, this had discovered and financial representative Danforth of New York moved that the testimony of both brothers be stricken from the record on the ground that it was irrelevant to the inquiry. This motion was lost. In the discussion on the motion, Representative Gardner of Massachusetts who voted with Danforth for it, said he could see little of relevance to the question of the values and freight rates of the steel corporation. Of the same mind were John Walwood Murphy, of counsel for Mr. Rockefeller, and D. A. Reid of counsel for the steel corporation, but when the motion had been voted down, Chairman Stanley declared he thought by admitting the testimony of the Merritts he had done a great service "to humanity."

The committee adjourned tonight probably not to meet again until after congress opens, when the objection of the steel corporation to a continuance of the hearing because of the government split against the steel trust will be taken up by the full commission.

DENVER ENGRAVER DEAD

DENVER, Nov. 22.—Frank Reistle, one of the first engravers in Denver, died early this morning at his home after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Reistle came to Denver 25 years ago from Philadelphia. He was the first to introduce electrotyping in Denver.

Half the Regular Fuel Supply Required

Cole's Original Hot Blast Heater, on account of its patented air-tight and gas-tight construction and patented hot blast combustion, gives perfect control over fire.

Build Only One Fire a Winter

It is so perfect in construction that fire keeps all night long on the stove. The cost of the stove is saved in fuel. $5.00 worth of soft coal, hard coal or lignite, or a $1.50 ton of black or white coal will do the work of twice the amount of fuel in a regular stove.

It is guaranteed to remain always air-tight, which makes it live as long as a fire-blower.

FIVE VESSELS ON WAY TO AID STRANDED SHIP

Interruption of Wireless Service Makes Communication With the Prinz Joachim Impossible

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Whether the 87 passengers of the steamer Prinz Joachim, which went ashore on Atwood key, near Smana Island, in the Bahamas early today, had been transferred this evening as expected to a Ward line steamer, one of which, a late afternoon message said, was already standing by, could not be learned at a late hour because of the interruption of wireless communication.

For hours wireless stations in this vicinity were unable to communicate with the Prinz Joachim because of the interference of other aerial messages. Up to 10 o'clock tonight the Hamburg-American line officials here had received no further advice than that the steamer Sogara, of the Ward line, the other Ward line, the Vigilance was also expected tonight and that arrangements to take off the passengers were being made. Among the Prinz Joachim's passengers are William Jennings Bryan, his wife and grandchildren.

An afternoon message said that transfer of passengers would begin about 6 o'clock. At the United wireless office it was said it might be midnight or early morning or after all the other wireless operators "had gone to bed" that communication would be reestablished with the stranded vessel or the other ships in the vicinity, about 1,000 miles from New York.

No less than five ships and possibly seven according to tonight's advices, are on their way to the assistance of the Prinz Joachim.

The few personal messages received during the day gave assurance that the passengers were safe. Among the messages was one from Lucien Wulfin, Jr., to his father, said to be a close friend of President Taft, whose home is in Cincinnati. His message read: "All safe. Expect to continue voyage."

The transfer of passengers, which was presumed to be going on tonight, was not expected to be attended by great difficulty, said the Hamburg-American officials, as the weather was reported favorable. The Prinz Joachim sailed with a cargo of general merchandise, principally soap, beef, flour and machinery. With these provisions she drew a full draught of water forward and aft, which may account for her grounding in a place she might otherwise have cleared.

READY TODAY FOR MORE PEREMPTORY CHALLENGES

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 22.—Peremptory challenges may be exercised tomorrow in the McNamara murder trial for the third time since the trial was begun. At the close of court tonight 10 men sat in the jury box, three of them having passed as to cause today by both sides. All were held in the box over the challenges of the defense.

S. P. O'Connell, a former hardware merchant, who said he believed James B. McNamara guilty of having caused the death of Charles J. Haggerty, a victim of the Los Angeles Times explosion a year ago and that he was afraid this opinion would influence his verdict.

A. J. Stevens, a farmer who knows District Attorney Fredericks, and said he at first believed the Times building was blown up by labor unions, but now had no opinion and could give a verdict on the evidence alone.

F. A. Brode, a real estate dealer, who believes the Times building was blown up by dynamite used by labor unions, and is acquainted with the family of one of the men killed.

Besides facing this unsatisfactory situation the defense further was depressed by several adverse rulings of the court.

The bright side of their day's labor showed only the negative result of crowding off the prospective jury. M. W. Snodgrass, a rancher who naturally supposed labor unions blew up the Times.

The three men passed today are considered likely subjects for peremptory challenges, as are, P. M. McBurney, an architect who went through high school with Assistant District Attorney W. Joseph Ford and believes the Times was blown up by labor unions, and J. H. Marshall, whose examination by the defense yielded little but unbusiness to the attorneys.

If the five peremptory challenges, peremptory challenges left over of 20 against five remaining to the state out of an original 10.

BECAUSE WOMEN HAVE SAME RIGHTS AS MEN, FINED SAME

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22.—The right to ballot, carried with it a $10 fine in the case of Mrs. Grace Hamilton, prominent social worker, and daughter, D. J. Spradley, several times a millionaire, who appeared in police court today to answer to a charge of driving an automobile in excess of the speed limit. Mrs. Hamilton admitted her violation of the ordinance, whereupon Police Judge Weller said: "Under the old order of things, defendant would have been released. As a result, she has been fair in her statements to this court and the fine was not great, but now, by the laws of this state, woman has all the rights and privileges that are granted to the man, and by the same token she should be subjected to the same penalties. I fine the defendant $10."

The fine was paid and Mrs. Hamilton departed smiling.

National Grange Will Meet There Next
Despite Opposition of Those Against Insurgents

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 22.—Spokane, Wash., was chosen as the next place of meeting of the National Grange.

Opposition was inspired by the fact that the Washington state grange has been largely controlled by insurgents and because B. C. Kelsey, Washington state master, leader of the insurgent faction in the National Grange, extended the invitation to the national body today.

In a statement tonight Oliver Wilson of Illinois, national master-elect, said:

"I don't know that there exists a Jones-Bachelder ring dominating the affairs of the National Grange. If there be such a faction, I am not a member of it, nor have I been advised of any of its policies or methods. My first association with the so-called insurgency came tonight when I met with members of this faction for the purpose, announced before I accepted their invitation, of ascertaining their motives and desires in the hope of bringing about complete harmony in the organization."

GRAY HAIR MAKES YOU LOOK OLD

A SIMPLE REMEDY BRINGS BACK THE NATURAL COLOR.
DANDRUFF QUICKLY

How often one hears the expression, "She is gray and beginning to look old." It is true that gray hair usually denotes age and is always associated with age. You never hear one referred to as having gray hair and looking young.

The hair is generally the index of age. If your hair is gray, you can't blame your friends for referring to you as looking old. You can't retain a youthful appearance if you allow your hair to grow gray. Many persons of middle age jeopardize their future simply by allowing the gray hair to become manifest. If your hair has become faded or gray, try Woods' Great Sulphur Hair Remedy, a preparation which, a chemist by the name of Wyeth devised a few years ago. It is simple, inexpensive and practical, and will banish the gray hairs in a few days. It is also guaranteed to remove dandruff and promote the growth of the hair.

It is a pleasant dressing for the hair, and after using it a few days itching and dryness of the scalp entirely disappear.

Don't neglect your hair. Start using Woods' Great Sulphur today, and you will be surprised at the quick results.

This preparation is offered to the public at fifty cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by all druggists. Special agent, Robinson Drug Co., 102 E. Pike Peak Ave.

COMMITTEE REPORTS TO A. F. OF L. TODAY

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 22.—When the convention of the American Federation of Labor meets tomorrow it will be with the expectation of hearing and passing on the reports of two of its most important committees, that on the adjustment of industrial disputes and that on the president's report.

The adjustment committee has in hand the controversy between the carpenters and the sheet metal workers, which resulted last year in the expulsion of the former from the building trades department.

It is expected the committee will recommend the reinstatement of the carpenters if they will agree to abide by the decision of the department in future disputes.

All recommendations made by President Gompers in his annual report to which it was referred, Chairman Wilson said the committee would make recommendations of vital importance to the federation.

The convention will adjourn on Saturday. President Gompers and other officers probably will be re-elected, as the Socialists have not developed enough strength to offer serious opposition. It is regarded as certain that the 1912 convention will be held at Rochester, N. Y., although Richmond, Va., is waging a strong fight for the meeting.

Resolutions adopted today favor the construction of all government vessels in government ship yards; endorse the strike on the Harlan lines; urge the changing of memorial Sunday from the second to the fourth Sunday in May; urge compulsory education, free school books and night schools; and petition President Taft to recommend to the governor of Porto Rico a better school appropriation and an eight-hour day.

ASK FOR DEFINITION SECOND CLASS MAIL

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—Resolutions were telegraphed to Postmaster General Hitchcock, suggesting a definition of second class mail matter at the closing session today of the Illinois Daily Press association.

The resolutions ask that subscriptions to newspapers be defined by congress and the postoffice department as only those paid for in advance and that all papers be denied mailing rights as second class matter not complying with this rule.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Postmaster General Hitchcock has privately and publicly expressed strong views as to some publications which are issued periodically and which make a specialty of advertising matter, and has expressed doubt whether such publications ought to be permitted to pass through the mails at second class rates. While Mr. Hitchcock could not be reached tonight, those in close touch with him expressed the view that he has no intention of recommending a law which would in any way curtail the publication of legitimate newspapers and periodicals.

RAILROAD MAN SWELLS CONVENTION FUND $4,000

DENVER, Nov. 22.—Four thousand dollars have been contributed by Fred Darius Miller of the Burlington and Colorado and Southern railroads toward the expense of bringing one of the big political conventions to Denver next year.

The announcement is made in a personal letter to Secretary W. F. R. Miller of the Denver convention league.

DENVER MAY BUILD CIVIC CENTER SAYS HIGH COURT

DENVER, Nov. 22.—The state supreme court decided today that the city authorities can proceed with the building of the civic center. The suit brought by Wolfe Londoner and other protesters was dismissed. The decision permits the city to proceed to construct the civic center immediately.

The decision was written by Justice Bailey. Justices Musser and Gabbott dissented.

OBJECTIONS TO COLLEGE PROFESSOR SUSTAINED

BOSTON, Nov. 22.—The objections to the appointment by Governor Pugh of Prof. Gannett Drovers of Williams college, formerly president of the University of South Dakota, as a member of the Massachusetts railroad commission were sustained today by the governor's council by a vote of 7 to 1.

Those objecting to Professor Drovers' appointment were based on the fact that he had been a member of the commission with Professor Drovers and that the latter was "totally unfit to hold office, because of his lack of fairness," and that it would be a political calamity for him to serve on the railroad commission.

SAT ON VICTIM'S BODY

OAKLAND, Cal., Nov. 22.—"All night long I sat on the body," said Capt. John Evans, of the bay schooner Rock Island today, giving himself up for the sixth of Peter Gassan, his only deck hand, whom he had choked to death, "and in my mind went over the struggle, asking to think of some other means by which I could have subdued him without killing him. I put in to Oakland today and on my way back, I gave up."

On his thought to have been crazed by liquor, attacked the skipper shortly after they put out from shore last night.

COUNSEL FOR PACKERS ON WAY TO WASHINGTON

CHICAGO, Nov. 22.—Counsel for the nine Chicago packers indicted under the criminal clause of the Sherman antitrust act left today for Washington, where it is expected today they will submit an appeal to Chief Justice White of the supreme court tomorrow. The appeal to the supreme court was taken from the decision of Judge Kohlsaat, who issued and later quashed a writ of habeas corpus for the packers in the United States circuit court.

BARS WOMEN JURORS

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Nov. 22.—Attorney General U. S. Webb today ruled against women serving as jurors in this state, the question having been raised as a result of the success of the suffrage constitutional amendment.

"Under the common law," says Webb, "a jury consisted of 12 free and lawful men and under the same law women were not eligible to jury duty. I think our code did not change the common law rule."

"I don't understand that the constitutional amendment extending the right of suffrage to women has affected the question of eligibility for jury service."

BURMAN WILL RACE

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—It was announced tonight by the manager of Bob Burman that Burman would take the place of J. Dawson in the Vanderbilt cup and Grand Prize automobile races to be held next week at Savannah. Dawson recently was injured in a practice spin. Burman, who is in the west, was telegraphed tonight to start immediately for Savannah.

AUTO RACERS AFTER NEW WORLD RECORDS

SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 22.—In an effort to establish a new world's record for automobile road races at the Thanksgiving week meet, the promoters of the Grand Prize and Vanderbilt cup races here have arranged for the holding of a special time record of the first 202 miles of the Vanderbilt cup race. The distance is the same as that run in the Santa Monica race, in which a new world's record of 74.6 miles an hour was established. The Vanderbilt cup race proper is a 270-mile run, and just what effect the new feature of it will have is creating much interest.

MICHIGAN TEAM ON WAY TO NEBRASKA

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 22.—The Michigan football eleven completed its season's work on "Perry" field this evening, after a double practice, which began early in the afternoon. The squad will leave tomorrow morning for Lincoln, Neb., for the game with Nebraska Saturday.

"Most of the work today consisted of light signal drill and the polishing up of players yet untried in a regular contest."

SUPERSTITION WINS

JAMESSTOWN, Va., Nov. 22.—Superstition's easy victory in the Tidewater handicap featured today's card at the Jamaica track. It was Superstition's first appearance at this meeting. He was well ridden and after being off in the early pace, closed a big game and won by a length. The attendance was the largest of the meeting, due to his fields and improved weather. The track was fast and good time was made.

SEATTLE MAN HEADS NATIONAL ASSN. STATE BANK SUPERVISORS

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 22.—Nelson W. Aldrich, chairman of the National Monetary commission, was the target of this afternoon at the American Bankers association convention for a cross-fire of questions from hundreds of practical financiers. But he had a ready answer whenever his plan for the revision of the country's financial system was questioned.

His open forum was the most interesting feature of a long day of addresses dealing with various phases of the financial problem.

Mr. Aldrich was emphatic in his rejection of a suggestion made in the address of Frank B. Anderson of San Francisco, who, while he approved the proposed reserve association, did not think its hands should be tied by forbidding it to enter the open market for the purchase of commercial paper to protect its discount rate.

To permit the reserve association to buy commercial paper in the open market would prevent enactment into law of the proposed plan, he declared. Further, he said, European banking institutions had discontinued this practice.

Inflation of Currency.

As to the possible inflation of currency, Mr. Aldrich said that after a certain amount of bank notes are issued not fully protected by gold they are to be taxed.

"Do you think the district association would permit undue expansion in this case?" he asked.

Earlier in the afternoon session J. G. Brown, president of the Citizens National bank of Raleigh, N. C., spoke on the needs of the farmers and the benefit they would derive from the National Reserve association. The address of President Stuart Patterson of the Western Savings Fund society of Philadelphia was read in his absence.

Congressman L. P. Faggett of Tennessee, member of the National Monetary commission, made an impassioned plea to keep the proposed Aldrich plan free of partisan politics and from the possibility of special control.

Frank B. Anderson of San Francisco spoke on "The Relation of the National Reserve Association to the Foreign Trade and Banks and the World's Financial Center." He asked for a banking system that would allow competition with foreign countries.

No Indorsement.

No indorsement of the so-called Aldrich plan for revision of the country's monetary system was given by the National Association of Supervisors of State Banks before the fourth annual convention of the association adjourned tonight.

Considerable discussion of the plan followed the introduction of a resolution by J. M. Dolley, Kansas, commissioner of banking, providing for the election by the association of a committee of seven members to consult with the National Monetary commission about the proposed plan.

Only Mr. Dolley, an hour later, voted against tabling this resolution. It was succeeded by another, which stated that the association under its constitution was without power to name the committee suggested by Mr. Dolley.

J. L. Mohundro of Seattle was elected president of the association and F. F. Roberts of Des Moines secretary-treasurer.

The next convention of the supervisors will be held at the same time and place as that of the American Bankers association, which is expected to go to Denver.

PUT BLAME FOR MURDER ON TURKISH GOVERNMENT

DENVER, Nov. 22.—That S. O. Zo Federow, foreman of the Adams mine near Frederick, Colo., was shot to death last Saturday night in the door of his cabin by an unknown assassin, to obtain a reward of $2,500 from the Turkish government was indicated today by the translation of a number of papers found among the dead man's effects. According to these papers, a price had been placed by the porte on Zo Federow's head because of his activity against Turkey when he served as a military officer with the Macedonians.

Investigation showed that Zo Federow came to the United States about six months ago and drifted around the country, never staying in one locality more than two weeks at a time. When he was shot he was drinking with a dozen companions at night in his bunkhouse at the mine. When he went to the door in response to a sudden call, he was instantly killed with a rifle bullet, his assailant escaping in the darkness.

IN VOLUNTARY BANKRUPTCY AGAINST MINING COMPANY

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—An involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed today against the Nevada-Utah mines and smelters company which has capital of $15,000,000 and its principal offices here by the Merchants Bank of Salt Lake City which has a claim for $125,000.

This claim which is said to be secured by collateral, is disputed by the Nevada-Utah corporation. The latter corporation consented to the filing of the creditor's petition and admitted that it is unable at present to meet its debts. On the joint application of counsel for the petitioners and the corporation, United States Judge Hough appointed Harry Melville receiver.

The putting of the corporation in the hands of the federal court, it is stated, is expected to facilitate the completion of the readjustment plans, protect the interests of the subsidiary companies and also settle the dispute concerning the claim of the Merchants bank.

Lying almost at your very door, within about six miles of Colorado Springs, is one of the most wonderful tracts of agricultural land to be found in the entire state. The fact that this land has remained undeveloped all these years, is probably due to the prevailing opinion that there was insufficient water to supply so large a tract with an abundance of water for irrigating.

Our investigations have demonstrated to our satisfaction that there is an inexhaustible supply of deep strata water under the entire tract. So firmly are we convinced of this condition, that we are going ahead sinking wells and installing the compressed-air plant for raising the water into the unit reservoirs, one of which will be located with each well.

Right now is your opportunity for getting 10, 20, 40, or more, acres of this land at practically little more than a "dry-farming" price. As little as $333 cash, balance in one and two years, will put you in immediate possession of some of the best soil to be found anywhere

ABOUT THE NAME "Thornton Ranch"

When the question came up with us of deciding on a name for our Irrigated Farm Tracts located east of Colorado Springs, it immediately occurred to us that the most suitable name was that by which the property had formerly been known, "Thornton Ranch."

It did not occur to us that the use of this name could cause any annoyance or inconvenience to Mr. F. C. Thornton, a well-known resident of Colorado Springs, and the former owner of the property.

Since the announcement of our plans in connection with the development and sale of this tract, Mr. Thornton has been approached by a number of friends and acquaintances for information concerning the project, and to save him further importunity in this respect, we take this means of giving publicity to the fact that Mr. Thornton is in no way connected with this Company or in the carrying out of the development already under way on the property known as the "Thornton Ranch," which formerly belonged to him.

Students at Boulder Stranded.

DENVÉR, Nov. 22.—A stern echo of the conflict waging in far away China is heard in the notification sent from diplomatic headquarters to 14 Chinese students at the Golden school of mines that the disrupted states of the celestial empire has entailed the discontinuance and possible abrogation of the indemnity fund, out of which the expended at the Colorado institution, and pensions of their education have been that no money is forthcoming for their provision.

The students, all of whom are bright, ambitious lads, find themselves in a hard predicament. They have between them $100, and at the end of the month will seek a month's board and lodging. The people with whom they board need the money.

EYE WITNESS TELLS

He had been in the habit of visiting at Mrs. Patterson's home, he said, and had come for a kodak he had left there. He admitted that he came armed upon this occasion because Mrs. Patterson had warned him of her husband's violent temper. Patterson and a friend appeared at the house unexpectedly, he said and Mrs. Patterson hurriedly went into the house. Patterson ordered him from the premises in a threatening manner, the witness said, and he drew a gun and marched Patterson and his friend off at the point of a revolver. Strain told him Mrs. Patterson ran after her husband, how they went away together and how after her return she upbraided him for jeopardizing the chances of success in her divorce action. As he was leaving, Strain said, Mrs. Patterson told him of the fear she entertained of her husband and asked him to leave his revolver, which he did. He identified the around here. Similar terms of payment will secure water rights, the cash payment to be made after we have demonstrated an abundance of water to your satisfaction.

If you wait until we have completed our water supply you will have to pay three or four times the price we are now asking.

If you wait only until next week, you will likely have to pay $10 more an acre than you can buy for this week, while there still remains unsold a portion of the first 1,000 acres which we set aside to be sold at a special "predevelopment" price.

In matters of this kind, delays are expensive to you. It is one thing to do this now, and an entirely different matter to wait until the thousand acres have been sold, and then have to pay for waiting.

If anyone feels skeptical about our water supply, we will be pleased to take them out and show them the wells and test holes that have convinced us. We will be very glad to take prospective purchasers out at their convenience. We go out every day to superintend the development work now under way.

Gertrude Gibson Patterson, accused of the murder of her husband. Declaring that the state expects to show that Mrs. Patterson, after being surprised by her husband under circumstances that threatened to jeopardize her chances for success in the divorce action she had brought, armed herself, lay in wait for him at a spot which she knew he was accustomed to pass in his morning walks, inveigled him to an isolated place and shot him in the back, deliberately and premeditatedly, he asked for a verdict of first degree murder if these conditions were proved in the satisfaction of the jury.

The opening statement of counsel for the state, dealing solely with events taking place within a period of time beginning 36 hours before the tragedy on September 25, last, clearly indicated the purpose of the state to limit testimony if possible, to the shooting itself and to what immediately preceded the affair. In the case as outlined by Prosecutor Benson this morning, lawyers say, there is no loophole for the defense to introduce testimony regarding her life before she and her husband came to Denver for his health in October, 1910. If such testimony is to be introduced, it is declared, the defense itself must lay the ground, and it is certain that any such attempt will be bitterly fought by the state.

In a calm, dispassionate speech, delivered in a conversational tone, devoid of emotion and free from any attempt at oratory—a good illustration of the manner in which the state in handling the case is seeking by every means to prevent the triumph of the jurors' sympathies—Prosecutor Benson detailed what the witnesses for the prosecution are expected to prove.

Experts aver that there is little or no ground for the belief that valuable metals lie very deep below the earth's surface.

HYDE DEFENSE CONCLUDES THE OPENING STATEMENT

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 22.—Frank P. Walsh, attorney for the defense, finished his opening statement to the jury this afternoon in the case of Dr. B. C. Hyde, charged with the murder of Col. Thomas H. Swope, and Judge Porterfield, announced that, hearing no evidence, would begin tomorrow morning. Walsh consumed the entire afternoon in making his statement. Almost his last words to the jury were that they were to be asked to take the life of a man upon the findings of an infinitesimal amount of cyanide in the stomach of the dead millionaire and the testimony of a chemist who had been hired at $200 a day to find a deadly quantity of strychnine in Colonel Swope's viscera.

Walsh said he would attack the integrity and ability of the experts who conducted the autopsy upon the Swope body and who made search for the poisons.

HERE ARE MARY GARDEN'S "BAGS OF SALT"

Prior to sailing for Europe in July, Mary Garden gave out an interview in New York on her observations in the west. Her impressions of Salt Lake City and the Mormons among the many other things credited to the volatile Mary, created comment in Utah that a boded a warm reception awaiting the singer should she undertake to appear in Mormonopolis again. She was quoted as saying that the women of Salt Lake City looked like "bags of salt." During mankind attempted to smooth things over by telling their womenfolk that Mary meant that they were not "fresh" like some femininity in other cities they could name. One young lantern of the Mormon labelnale choir, whose hobby is the camera, induced a few of the sopranos to pose before the lens so that he could show to the world at large some samples of Mary Garden's bags of salt. The accompanying picture is the result. The coming of 200 young Utah people belonging to the singing society known as the Mormon Tabernacle choir, which is booked at the Opera house for Friday night, makes this picture timely. When it is stated that these young girls are not only good looking, but have splendid voices and they are but a fraction of the big chorus, it can be seen that there is a treat in store for lovers of good music in this city.

EXTENDS STORM WARNINGS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—The weather bureau today added an additional marine warning to be known as the small craft warning to notify owners of fishing, towing, motor and yachting craft of the approach of a strong wind that might interfere with the safe operation of small vessels.

This will go into effect December 1, and will consist of a red pennant flown from the flagstaff on the Atlantic, Pacific and gulf states and on the great lakes.

HAIR THAT FASCINATES

Who Wants It?—Hair Full of Life and Beauty?

Start now, madam. November is just the month to begin to acquire glorious head of hair of which you will be justly proud during the social events of winter time. If you haven't used PARISIAN SAGE you won't on the high road to hair beauty. PARISIAN SAGE is the most delightful preparation that destroys the dandruff germ and by so doing removes in a short time the cause of dandruff, falling hair, itching scalp, faded and lifeless hair. Dandruff germs are obstructionists; they prevent the hair from receiving its proper nourishment by ravenously devouring the same nourishment. Use PARISIAN SAGE for one week and note the wonderful improvement. The Robinson Drug Co. guarantees it, 50 cents a bottle.

COMMERCE BODY ASKED TO APPOINT DELEGATES

The Chamber of Commerce has received an invitation to appoint delegates to the National Irrigation Congress, to be held at Chicago, December 5 to 9. The congress is held this year at the time of the United States Land and Irrigation exposition and the International Live Stock exposition. Last year the Irrigation congress met at Pueblo, and the Colorado Springs Chamber of Commerce took an active part in promoting it.

Invitation also has been received to name delegates to the meeting of the National Business League of America, which is to be held in Chicago December 11, 12 and 13. It will discuss such questions as the creation of an American merchant marine, promotion of foreign commerce, needs for currency legislation and transportation.

President E. W. Giddings of the Chamber of Commerce will be glad to learn of members interested in attending either of these meetings.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

We wish to distinctly understand that in purchasing the stock and fixtures of The Davis & Muehl Catering company on September 18, 1911, we did not buy the outstanding accounts and have nothing to do with them whatever. All bills due the former concern prior to September 18, 1911, should be paid to the assignee Miss Genevieve Olliphant.

We have no authority whatsoever to receive payment or receipt for any bills due to the former proprietors. The Davis & Muehl Catering company.

The store will be conducted under the name of "Muehl's."

We would appreciate very much a continuance of your patronage.

E. G. DAVIS, Proprietor.

C. C. ZIMMERMAN, Manager.

STATEWIDE INTEREST IN THE POSTCARD CAMPAIGN

Increasing interest is being taken by the commercial clubs of the state in the postcard advertising campaign inaugurated by the Colorado Association of Commercial Executives. Letters received by Secretary A. W. Henderson, in response to the communications addressed to commercial clubs in all parts of the state show that the idea is taking hold in every section, and that as a result a statewide campaign of publicity which will result in a big volume of advertising for Colorado will be carried out, beginning Saturday and continuing throughout Thanksgiving week.

The Trinidad chamber of commerce, Trinidad chamber of commerce, Lamar Commercial Club association, Del Norte Commercial Club, Grand Junction chamber of commerce and many other organizations throughout the state are printing special editions of postcards, advertising their localities, for distribution at this time.

The Denver chamber of commerce will take up the matter with its members with a view to having all enclose slips advertising Colorado in all correspondence out of the state.

The campaign is along the line of that carried out by the Colorado Springs Chamber of Commerce last July, when on the five successive Saturdays, it distributed 100,000 postcards.

BEGIN WORK ON DIRECTORY

J. B. Freeman, who has long been in the employ of the R. L. Polk Directory company, began preliminary work this week on the 1912 directory for Colorado, Springs, Colorado City and Manitou. The actual work will be carried on from the offices of the Giles Mercantile agency, Independence building, beginning January 1. Mr. Freeman stated yesterday that, from the advertising space taken in the new directory, business conditions in this city are unusually good, better than those in any other city in Colorado which he has visited. It is expected that the new directory will be ready for circulation June 1.

A Splendid Tonic

Cora, Kay—Mrs. Iva Moore, of this place, says, "I was so weak I could hardly walk. I tried Cardui, and was greatly relieved. It is a splendid tonic. I have recommended Cardui to many friends, who tried it with good results." Testimony like this comes unsolicited from thousands of earnest women, who have been benefited by the timely use of that successful tonic medicine Cardui. Purely vegetable, mild, but reliable, Cardui well merits its high place in the esteem of those who have tried it. It relieves women's pains and strengthens weak women. It is certainly worth a trial. Your druggist sells Cardui.

LITTLE CHANGE INTENDED

M. W. A. Sanatorium Improvements to Be Practically as Originally Planned—Committee Coming

About the only change contemplated in the improvement plans for the Modern Woodmen of America Sanatorium will be the elimination of the subway feature. The main reception hospital, the heat, light and power plant and the bath and garage will be completed at an expense of about $250,000, as arranged in the plan drawn by MacLaren & Thomas, local architects.

The sanatorium committee, consisting of A. R. Talbot, Lincoln, Neb., head counsel, E. E. Murphy, Leavenworth, Kan., P. S. Tanner, Minkler, Ill., and T. R. Korns, Des Moines, Ia., will arrive in Colorado Springs, December 5 to hold a consultation with Dr. J. A. Rutledge and the architects relative to the proposed improvements.

"When we first drew the plans we almost made it impossible to give us the kind of furniture needed," said Dr. Rutledge, "so great would have been the expense. I want to install one of the best equipped laboratories in the west and to buy some furniture for the present buildings and for the ones that we are to construct. That is why the work is being held temporarily in the main buildings. The subway giving room for the pipes and an underground tramway between the buildings, is needless expense and will be done away with."

Work already has started on the bath and garage at the sanatorium grounds. Preliminary work on the remainder of the buildings will be started, it is understood immediately following the arrival of the sanatorium committee.

EXTENSIVE IMPROVEMENTS BY PIKES PEAK COG ROAD

The management of the Pikes Peak Cog road announced yesterday that the next six months will be spent in improving the road's equipment in order to do away with the jolting which now afflicts the trains. New trucks, specially designed to abolish the jolting, have been ordered from a firm in Philadelphia, and they will be installed at the Cog road's shops in Manitou. The engines of the company will be thoroughly overhauled and placed in the best possible condition. The improvements will cost in the neighborhood of $20,000 according to Manager Sells.

FOUR MEMBERS ADDED TO CHAMBER COMMERCE

Four members were added to the Chamber of Commerce at the regular meeting of the directors yesterday afternoon, at the headquarters of the association in the Burns theater building, when, upon recommendation of the membership committee, the following applications were favorably acted upon: Stuart Robinson, J. B. Cralle, John Mueller and Clinton C. Osborn. Transfer of the memberships previously held by George B. Tripp and T. E. Kindig to J. F. Dostal and C. S. Farnert was approved.

Plans for a further increase in the membership were discussed and referred to the committee on membership of which O. E. Hemenway is chairman. They will take definite shape within a short time.

Reports from other committees also were received, these reports and other matters under consideration pertaining to routine work of the Chamber of Commerce.

Many Springs Teachers to Go to State Meeting

Taking advantage of the fact that there will be no sessions at the various schools of the city next week, about 150 teachers will attend the annual meeting of the Colorado State Teachers' Association in Denver, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. All of the teachers from this city will stay at the Brown Palace hotel during the convention.

CHILD PIANIST TONIGHT

Little Blanche Cobacker, the remarkable child pianist, by special request will have a testimonial recital this evening at 8:15 in Perkins hall. Dr. John H. Gower will assist with two organ numbers, and little Sylvia Cobacker will dance. Capacity houses greet this gifted little girl whenever she appears in Denver, and all who heard her here a few weeks ago are loud in their praises.

Colorado City DEPARTMENT

Officers for the ensuing year will be elected by W. O. W. camp tomorrow night.

Mrs. P. W. McNulty has been seriously ill at her home, 116 Main street, for the last week.

The Rev. and Mrs. V. O. Penlay have been entertaining the Rev. F. E. Kramer, rector of All Saints church of Denver.

The Woman's guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd will meet with Mrs. Fred Corporan, 309 Jackson avenue, today at 2.30 p. m.

It has been reported to the police that $8.50 was taken from the cash register in the DeMoss restaurant by a sneak thief Tuesday afternoon. No arrests have been made.

QUININE DOESN'T CURE BAD COLDS

How to Really Break a Severe Cold and End All Grippe Misery in Just a Few Hours

You will distinctly feel your cold breaking and all the grippie symptoms leaving after taking the very first dose.

It is a positive fact that Pape's Cold Compound taken every two hours until three consecutive doses are taken will end the grippie and break up the most severe cold either in the head, chest, back, stomach or limbs.

It promptly relieves the most miserable headache, dullness, head and nose stuffed up, feverishness, sneezing, sore throat running of the nose, mucous catarrhal discharges, soreness, stiffness and rheumatic twinges.

Pape's Cold Compound is the result of three years' research at a cost of more than fifty thousand dollars, and contains no quinine, which we have conclusively demonstrated is not effective in the treatment of colds or grippie.

Take this harmless compound as directed, with the knowledge that there is no other medicine made anywhere else in the world, which will cure your cold or end grippie misery as promptly and without any other assistance or bad after-effects as a 25-cent package of Pape's Cold Compound which any druggist in the world can supply.

Limited Funds Prevent Park Improvements Now

Judge H. G. Lunt, chairman of the park commission, said yesterday that plans for improving the Colorado Springs parks especially so far as new construction work is concerned will have to be held in abeyance for probably a year.

This is due, he pointed out, to a lack of funds. The amount given the commission next year is $25,000, and this sum will about see the park commissioners through to regular maintenance expenses.

"We will have no money for special improvements or new construction," said Judge Lunt, "and there is no use planning for expenditures outside the ordinary. Our appropriation will just about cover our regular operating expenses."

News of Local Courts

County Judge Little returned yesterday from a trip to Louisville, Ky.

William Flaherty and George Shetler were each sentenced to 30 days in jail yesterday by Magistrate Starrett on a charge of being intoxicated.

B. F. Kaufman and O. Livermore, doing business as Kaufman and company, filed a money demand suit in the district court yesterday against John C. Leonard, James I. Lacey and the Zang Brewing company formerly doing business as the Spaulding house and grill. They ask payment for a bill of goods amounting to $305.75, alleged to have been purchased by defendants.

John O'Brien was tried in Justice Gowdy's court yesterday and acquitted of a charge of assaulting Detective Tom Gavin. Gavin testified that O'Brien struck him twice but a jury decided in favor of O'Brien. He was rearrested after the trial and will be tried on a charge of disturbance.

C. H. Falk, keeper of a cigar store, was fined $5 and costs in Justice Gowdy's court yesterday, when he pleaded guilty to a charge of selling tobacco to boys under 16 years of age. Juvenile Officer Allward says that all tobacco dealers violating this provision of a state law will be prosecuted if caught.

John Dorrity, Tom Stead and Tom Halley are in the county jail on a charge of creating a disturbance several days ago at Monument. Date for the hearing in Justice Dunnington's court has not been set.

Tony Girardo furnished bond of $500 in Justice Dunnington's court yesterday and will be tried today on a charge of nonsupport. His 14-year-old wife, whom he married a few weeks ago, is the complaining witness. The girl alleges that Girardo deserted her three days after their marriage. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Belmarco, who live in the northern part of the city. Girardo was arrested in Idaho Springs Monday and brought here for trial.

Dr. H. Norbert, alias "Dr. H. George," alias Captain H. G. Helmberg, was sentenced to 60 days in the county jail yesterday by Justice Dunnington on a charge of vagrancy. Norbert was arrested Monday by the police after he had made several unsuccessful attempts to borrow money. It is alleged that he has served a short term in the jail.

AMERICAN TENNIS TEAM REACHES NEW ZEALAND

AUCKLAND, New Zealand, Nov. 22.—The American lawn tennis team, challengers for the Dwight Davis international cup, William A. Tarned, Maurice E. McLaughlin and Beals C. Wright, who arrived on the steamer Zealandia, were given a civic reception today. The Americans will go to Wellington and then to Christ Church, where the challenge round with the Australians will be played.

ORDEMANN BEATS CUTLER

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 22.—Perry Ordemann of Minneapolis defeated Charles Cutler of Chicago here tonight in two straight sets, winning the first in 1 hour 4 minutes 59 seconds, and the second in 5 minutes 55 seconds. The first fall was won on a half Nelson and leg hold, and the second on a half Nelson and toe hold.

MR. T. LEACH CAN'T SEE THE BASEBALL REPORTER

Leach, by the way, has returned to this city looking the picture of health. He had a long auto trip, of course, and reporters ever thought of seeking an expression on the subject. They know it was folly to attempt such an act. Leach does not have much to do with newspaper men. Pittsburgh sports correspondent of Sporting Life commenting on the report that Leach might be selected to manage the Cincinnati team.

By JAMES C. ISAMINGER. PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 22.—If there were any remaining reason why President Herrmann, of the Cincinnati team, should decline to select Leach as successor to Clark Griffith it is furnished in the above extract.

So it is folk on the part of a baseball reporter to approach such an awesome being as the Pittsburgh player. We can picture Mr. Leach rising with all the imperiousness and dignity that one of 5 feet 4 inches can command and saying to the poor word painter away with a gesture, "Get thee gone, I refuse to be bored."

Leach is a poet. In the winter time it is said that he runs a chain of pipes and at a dinner table he sometimes makes the knife perform the sacred office of the fork. Therefore, who should any vulgar scribbler interrupt the great man's train of thought?

Can he write? Why one of the most treasured gems of Leachiana is a postcard in the hands of a Chicago concern. It is an order for a box of corn salve. Great Leach, poor word painter.

It is rather odd that anybody ever thought of rolling him into a job at the head of a club worth $200,000 or more. Baseball has changed, and today a manager is a public character just like the governor, the mayor, the clerk of the court or quarter sessions, or the wine agent. If he hasn't the ability to distribute his hand around a crowd after a game, he might as well get out.

Baseball has broadened. In the old days, when many of the star ball tossers and their managers looked and acted like a night hackman, it was considered a faux pas to have anything to do with the occupants of the press box.

But baseball was revolutionized, like everything else, and the players and managers were of better stock gradually. The infusion of diploma holders gave the game quite a boost, although it is by no means a fact that all the brains and decency of baseball are monopolized by whalers of the sphere who rank high in the frats. Baseball simply improved all round.

All amusement enterprises must depend on the press for success. Baseball's closest ally is the press, and if the game and club owner profit by the connection, it in turn helps the manager and Mr. Leach. Mr. Leach is drawing about ten times as much as an ordinary coalstove driver because the newspapers nurtured baseball from a wail into a husky knif.

If it were not for baseball, Mr. Leach might be an ambassador to the court of St. James or the new president of the Chicago republic, and then again he might be holding some portfolio where the wage scale was not much above the $10 a week mark, and where he would have to find his own job and shovel. Mr. Leach would have to gamble on the two extremes.

Baseball is a riotous success. It is not uncommon to see crowds of 30,000 seated comfortably in the mammoth, roomy and secure steel-and-concrete stands. But it wasn't many years ago when spectators never gathered the baseball club owners. Crowds of 10,000 were an event, and they were glad to be herded in the single-decker wooden sheds.

That was the early stage of baseball, and it was the American newspaper which fought baseball's fight and put it on the do-hike basis that it enjoys today.

Therefore, when this close association of the press and baseball is pointed out, it is inconceivable that a man who should be a newspaper reporter like he would the Asiatic cholera would be considered for the highest position.

Mr. Leach is not modern. He belongs to the old plug-ugly school. He couldn't adapt himself to the changed conditions in baseball. Perhaps he is unaware of any changes. Baseball to him is merely trying to get three hits a game and drawing the semimonthly check.

The Leach class won't long survive. In 10 years it will have been wiped out altogether, and it will be a boon to the game when it comes.

While the Leaches are fast vanishing, yet there are still a few managers in big league baseball who should take a correspondence course on how to behave when being cornered by a baseball reporter who is using an open boom microphone and a paper coil ally for advertising at a rate of 25 cents per minute line.

Many a manager looks upon the sportswriter as a natural enemy, this being the attitude frequently shown to that writer outside of his own town. He shrinks from the baseball writer as if he was a pariah, answers a few questions, but monosyllabically and then unconsciously wheels away, although the interview isn't half finished. And this is the type of feeble-brained longshoreman who wonders why the press is so cold toward him.

Another habit of some managers is to make mystery of everything. If Thled Baseman Jones takes a day off to go fishing, the manager will keep the fact a secret, and if he talks about it at all will curtly say, "He's home sick." The writer makes Jones and asks the question for his readers' benefit. He personally doesn't care a rap whether Jones went to Honekong to join the rebels or contracted the mumps.

This attempt for the occult in baseball goes in other directions. Some managers would as soon reveal their family skeleton as to announce their date for the next day. As a matter of fact, the name of his pitcher could be telegraphed all over town and it wouldn't have the slightest effect on the result of the game.

HOW TO TREAT OLD SORES

The proper way—the only successful way—to treat an old sore is to destroy its source. Not by dangerous surgical operations or irritating "drawing" plasters, but by Nature's true method of purifying the blood and filling the circulation with rich, nourishing properties; then the cure will be natural and lasting. We can easily understand how impurities in the blood will infect some weak point on our bodies, and by continually discharging impurities into it keep the place open and inflamed until a chronic ulcer is formed. Nothing then is so sure to produce a cure of these old sores as S. S. S. This medicine is Nature's perfect blood remedy, composed of the most healing and at the same time the most penetrating and blood-purifying properties. It removes every particle of impurity or morbid matter from the circulation, and assists nature in the increasing of healthful, nutritious corpuscles in the blood. S. S. S. makes pure blood and pure blood is Nature's unfailing cure for old sores. We want every sufferer with an old sore to commence the use of S. S. S., because we know it is the remedy they most need. Book on Sores and Ulcers and medical advice free to all. S. S. S. is sold at drug stores.

NEW YORK MARKET

CHICAGO MARKET

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Quotations moved upward early today in stocks and downward in the late session. The two movements nearly balanced each other. In the cases of the leading issues no changes were small though generally higher.

The early advance was characterized by the speculative movement in the copper issues. Bull traders operated less confidently than yesterday, and the feeling that the market strength was to some extent artificial was indicated by the manner in which profits were taken.

In the afternoon the market showed signs of weakness and did not respond to manipulation of special stocks. The outlook on the whole was regarded as brighter. A stimulating influence lies in the increased dividend declared by several railroad and industrial companies.

A steady small investment demand has been noted. Statistics published today showed that within the last year the number of stockholders in representative corporations had increased largely. The further rise in the copper stocks was stimulated by excited trading in the London metal market and strength in the local market with transaction, but above 10 cents. The steel stocks also showed strength. Declaration of annual dividend on the public steel preferred was accompanied by a rise of 1/8 in the stock.

The bond market was irregular. Total sales were $2,515,000.

United States 2s coupon and the 3s declined 1/8 on call.

Quotations furnished by Otis & Hough.

MORMON CHOIR LEADER

One of the most unique individuals accompanying the famous Mormon Tabernacle choir on its 1,500-mile trip to its veteran director, Evan Stephens. During the 25 years he has waved his baton over the biggest choir in the world he has seen several thousand girls grow in womanhood, get married, leave the choir and their places taken by the next rising generation. Hundreds of fascinating blondes and brunettes have raised their voice in song in response to the wave of life and laughter of sweet girls have come to him with their musical troubles yet, to this day this smiling, little Mormon elder is a bachelor. His state of affairs somewhat shatters the preconceived idea of the average Mormon male adult.

Evan Stephens emigrated from a Welsh village as a mere boy. On arriving in Utah he herded sheep in the mountains until one day he made his appearance on the streets of Salt Lake clad in homespun and as brown as a berry. His talent as a chorus leader was soon recognized, and under the patronage of Brigham Young he eventually was selected as the leader of the big Mormon choir. Melba, Nordica, Patti and all the rest of the famous singers who have appeared in the Mormon Tabernacle have joked with the little director on the subject and he always had a ready answer for them. He tells them that he is married to his art. Wherever there is a big choir organization there is the name of Evan Stephens known as being one of the big men in his line.

Evan Stephens will direct the choir on the occasion of its appearance at the opera house Friday night. Seats are now selling. The prices are 50c, 75c, $1.00 and $1.50.

WONDERFUL LIGHT

EFFECTS IN PICTURES

Some wonderful light effects are being secured at the opera house now with the motion pictures which are shown at this theater every day from 2 to 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon and from 7:30 to 10:30 at night. The new contrivance upon which expert electricians have been working all week, has proven to be most successful. Yesterday afternoon an expert from Denver visited the city and personally looked over the machine, wiping out the difficulties which had been encountered earlier in the week so now the pictures are the most brilliant, the clearest, most perfect from a lighting standpoint ever shown in this city.

It is truly remarkable the results this machine has accomplished. The pictures shown upon the screen are surprisingly fine and surpass anything ever shown in this city. No one should miss this opportunity of witnessing the performances at the opera house. The admission is 10 cents anywhere on the lower floor and 5 cents in the balcony.

Manager Nye is showing first run pictures only. The films come to this city fresh, never before used and thus there are no ragged edges or clouded effects. The subjects are all interesting and show considerable ingenuity on the part of the producers as well as the scene of motion picture taking. Do not miss them.

"THE ROSARY"

Rowland and Clifford's play "The Rosary" is repeated this season with remarkable success. This play, as everybody remembers, was the hit of last season, when it broke many house records for big audiences. The play was written by Edward F. Rieu, author of "The Prisoner of Zenda," and many other successes, and has become as much of a favorite with theatergoers throughout the country as any of Mr. Rieu's former dramas. The play from the start tells how Bruce Wilton has amassed a fortune, which he lavishes upon his wife, Vera. Their home is a happy one until she ceases to be a note of menace. No one hears of it at first except Mr. Kelly, a priest, the former tutor of Bruce.

Quietly he goes to work to find the person who is causing the adverse influence in the household.

Almost on the verge of discovering the cause, calamity descends upon the Wilton home. Bruce's fortune is swept away, and in such a way that he believes his wife the cause of his ruin. Husband and wife are separated, the home is destroyed, and yet the cause of all this disaster is unknown. Mr. Kelly, however, with resolute zeal, perseveres in his work, to fathom the mystery and finally succeeds in his undertaking. He finds the one who has caused all the misery, and eventually restores the home. The scenic environments of the play are extremely attractive, and place much credit on the scenic and lighting efforts.

The play will be seen at the opera house Tuesday night only. The seats will be on sale Friday morning. The prices are 50c, 75c, $1.00 and $1.50.

"THE HOUSE NEXT DOOR"

"The House Next Door" is a comedy adapted from the German by J. Hartley Manners. It treats of the prejudices of the well-born against the rising to position and wealth of the lowly-born, but all in a humorous vein. It is not, as one might be led to believe from the statement, a problem play, but merely an amusing, and at times milky, and always interesting drama of society.

The first act is farce of the purest kind—a scene at a breakfast table. The other two acts are more comedy, with occasional touches of sentiment, and in one instance a suggestion of pathos, all of which adds to the entertainment of the audience. It is a play in which the interest is held up until the last curtain. Usually the last act serves to bring the dramatic persons together so that all will end well, but in this comedy the end is unconventional, yet consistent and really gratifying.

Messrs. Rowland and Gaskill, the producers, have provided a cast of unusual strength, headed by William V. Mong, who will be seen in the role formerly played by J. E. Dodson. The engagement is limited to a matinee and night, Thanksgiving day.

A VIOLIN THAT TALKS THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE

Only a short time ago there was a violinist here who made his instrument sing like a bird, but there is a violinist in town this week, who makes his instrument actually talk the English language. His name is John Gell, and he is a musical novelty artist he need not take off his hat to anyone in the country.

Gell imitates a church organ, Scotch bagpipes, chimes and other instruments marvelously, but the climax of his skill comes when he imitates

MISS MAE LA VINE

Whose Dancing and Bandbox Are a Feature of the Laughaible Farce, "Imagination" at the Majestic This Week.

A little girl reciting "Mary Had a Little Lamb," a negro saying his prayers and sundry other things, including what the woman said to her husband when he came home at 3 a. m. loaded to the guards. It is very funny and these stunts lend a lot of jollity to the Indian musical specialty of Gell and his partner, Nellie Walters. Tomorrow night is the last chance to hear him, also to see the rest of the good things on this week's immensely popular bill at the Majestic. Performance at 2:45, 7:30 and 9:10. Admission only 10c, 20c and 30c.

CRIBBERATED ENGLISH

COMEDIAN IS COMING

Albert Weston, the noted English comedian, who is a brother of the "drunk" in "A Night in an English Music Hall," which was seen in this city some months ago, portrays the same character in "The Fainting Girl." Albert Weston is the originator of this particular brand of comedy, his brother having been taught all his stunts by his elder brother Albert. Nellie Lynch will be remembered as the original "Fainting Girl" in Lew Field's "Jolly Bachelors."

One of the most laughable bits of the sketch will be the portrayal of a rather satirical one of the leading dramatic plays of the day, where Weston with his leg attempts to do the lead. Miss Lynch will give some characterizations from a captivating young woman to a boneless rag doll. They have been popular all over the S. & C. circuit and are sure to score a big hit here. They open a week's engagement at the Majestic Saturday afternoon.

LYRIC CLOSING TODAY

A program that will certainly please everybody is that of the Lyric yesterday and today, including as it does the big feature production, "Lost in the Jungle," which is doubtless one of the greatest animal films ever made. In the luxuriant tropical setting of the South African jungle, this picture contains enough thrills to satisfy the most blasé theatergoer.

"The Fighting Schoolmaster," a war-time drama, would be a headliner on most bills. Every detail is historically correct, and the battle and the thrilling rescue of the soldier who has been dashed, wounded, into the river, are big scenes.

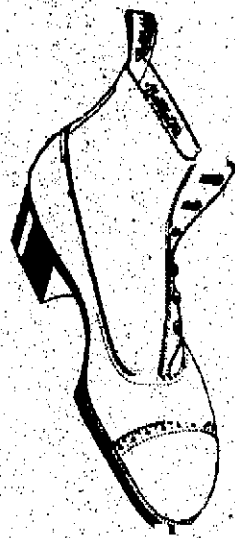

Another historically interesting picture details the life of a young Florentine violinist at the court of Louis XIV of France. Beautifully colored, this picture gives a near insight into the splendors of the court of the "Grand Monarque." A picturesque Portuguese city, the solo by Miss Meljorie Nash, and the pleasing orchestra program, complete a great bill.

MORE THAN FOOT OF SNOW FALLS AT LAKE MORAIN

Over a foot of snow fell at Lake Moraine yesterday, the storm having started very early in the morning. The fall will be of much benefit to the city's water supply, it is thought.

More Moving Pictures to Advertise Region

J. G. Andrews, one of the managers for the Solax Moving Picture company of New York, arrived in Colorado Springs yesterday and announced his intention of producing moving pictures of this region which will serve as an excellent advertising feature for Colorado Springs. Manager Andrews will have pictures taken, with his troupe of actors, of the various scenic places of interest about the city. The completed reel, he says, will give an excellent idea of what may be seen in this region from the time one leaves the depot until he is ready to return. The troupe will act in the Garden of the Gods, Cave of the Winds, Williams canon, Mt. Manitou, along the high drive, and other attractive districts. The troupe has been in Colorado for several weeks taking views along the route of the Short Line and Colorado Midland railroads.

BUSY REHEARSING COMEDY

The students who are to appear in the comedy by the German club of Colorado college are busy with daily rehearsals. H. Howard Brown is giving instructions to the chorus in its folk song. The play to be given this season is Benedict's "Die Hochzeitsreise," or "The Wedding Journey." The comedy will be staged in Cogswell theater at Permian hall next Saturday night.
